

ARTEVINO Sélection éphémère, Graves Rouge, Château Du Barrailh, AOC Graves, Rouge, 2019

AOC Graves, Bordeaux, France

Since 1847, the family estate has been making great wines with passion and respect for the environment, on one of the best plateaux in the Graves, the age-old cradle of Bordeaux wines.

TERROIR

Pebbles, rolled pebbles, gravel, sands mixed with silts and clays, real favours from the Pyrenean mountains brought by the Garonne over the millennia.

WINEMAKING

Pre-fermentation maceration with cooling of the grapes (cold soaking), alcoholic fermentation at low temperature, long maceration with micro-oxygenation under the skin cap, malolactic fermentation in vats and barrels.

AGEING

Aged 50% in French oak barrels for 12 months.

VARIETALS

Merlot 80%, Cabernet sauvignon 20%

AGEING POTENTIAL

5 to 10 years

TASTING

Deep, brilliant ruby colour.

A delicate, gentle blend of red fruit and mocha coffee, with the air bringing out the complexity of black fruit, cocoa and spices.

The perfectly ripe grapes give a supple, smooth attack, with a very long, fresh, roasted and elegant finish.
