

Château Redon 2020

AOP Saint-Emilion, Bordeaux, France

Although Château Redon is not the most well-situated estate in Saint-Emilion, it seems that it does the best it can, given its location. Definitely one of the “sleepers” in its own category which deserves to be better known !

Bronze

"Toasty, charred oak aromas. The palate shows a good concentration of dense black fruit, red plums, and spicy elements. Enjoyable tension on the palate, bright acidity, and grippy tannins."
